

BRITISH ROYAL CHEF
Carolyn Robb

Former Personal Chef to THR Prince Charles, Princess Diana, Prince William and Prince Harry

Carolyn Robb was born and raised in South Africa.

She began to cook at a very early age; as soon as she could firmly grip a wooden spoon in her tiny hand and was able to read enough words to decipher a recipe she was in the kitchen at every opportunity.

After studying languages at University, Carolyn travelled to Switzerland to spend a winter season working in a ski resort hotel. The experience of Swiss hospitality inspired her to seriously pursue a career in food. Motivated by her mother, a wonderful cook, she had her sights set on cooking for the Queen one day...

She attended the Tante Marie School of cookery in Surrey and after gaining her diploma in Cordon Bleu Cookery with distinction she moved to Kensington Palace where she began work as chef to TRH The Duke and Duchess of Gloucester. Two years later, in the summer of 1989, Carolyn was offered the position of chef to TRH The Prince and Princess of Wales.

After 13 years in the Royal Household, Carolyn left and moved to Dubai where she established and implemented consultancy / training programmes in the top hotels, including the famous "seven star" Burj al Arab Al Maha Desert Resort. Carolyn had regular radio and television slots and wrote several publications. After that, Carolyn took up the full time position of food editor for "Time Out", which published magazines for both, Dubai and Abu Dhabi. This job entailed reviewing in excess of 50 restaurants a month – often 2 a day!

During her career Carolyn cooked so far for almost all British royals as well as for foreign royals like HM The King of Jordan and Queen Noor, HM Constantine and Queen Anne-Marie of Greece, HM The King and Queen of Spain, HM Queen Beatrix of The Netherlands, HM The King Of Bhutan and many members of the royal families of the UAE, Bahrain, Kuwait and Oman and well as numerous politicians, celebrities and religious leaders.

Back in the U.K. she pursued her own career by forming her own company Carolyn Introduction \(anyflip.com\)
